DID YOU KNOW?

The Province of Ontario has declared a State of Emergency……this means it is anticipated that; effective midnight (February 12, 2022):

- It is illegal and punishable to block and impede the movements of goods, people and services along critical infrastructure
- The new orders will be aimed at protecting international border crossings, 400-series highways, airports, ports, bridges and railways, as well as the safe movement of medical services, public transit, municipal and provincial roadways and pedestrian walkways.
- Fines for non-compliance can include a maximum fine of up to $100,000 and up to a year in prison.
- The province is also considering taking away personal and commercial licenses (CVOR) from any protesters who do not comply with the order.
- These measures will be permanent.
